

Our Leadership

Muhammad Uzair Karghatra

Founder

Mr. Muhammad Uzair Karghatra is a highly successful and renowned entrepreneur who laid the foundation for As-Saadah. As the owner of multiple Shariah Compliant business ventures, a reputable builder, and a technology expert who owns a prominent software house, his vision is uniquely grounded in both Islamic principles and modern industry. He founded As-Saadah with the urgent mission to evolve the Ummah technologically by educating Madaris graduates with essential modern IT skills. His dedicated goal is to bridge the gap between traditional Islamic education and the demands of the digital economy.

Muzammil Athar

Program Director

Mr. Muzzamil Athar is a Distinguished IT Specialist and Advisor whose career spans over two decades in the Information Technology and Telecommunication sectors.

An engineering graduate from UET Lahore with a Post Graduation in Business Administration from Hamdard University, he has held numerous leadership roles, including Country Head positions at top multinational companies like Huawei Technology and ZONG (China Mobile), and currently serves as the Business Head IT and Telecom at Muller & Phipps.

A dedicated philanthropist, Mr. Athar is an IT Advisor to the Governor House Sindh and actively supports the public sector as a consultant to National Skills University, JDC Pakistan, and Saylani Welfare Trust.

He is widely recognized for his immense contributions to IT education, having established and run numerous free IT centers—including JDC Free IT City (for 100,000 students), centers at Sachal Rangers, Airport Security Force, and NED University—which have collectively trained thousands of Pakistani youth for the global entrepreneurial and IT market.

His impactful services have earned him more than 20 International and National Awards, including twice receiving the IT Services award by the President of Pakistan and the Honorable Governor Sindh.

Recognizing his long contribution to public well-being and modern IT education, the Governor Sindh has recommended him for the conferment of the Tamgha-e-Imtiaz Civil Award.

Drawing on his extensive background in Telecommunication Engineering and IT leadership, Mr. Athar drives the strategic programs necessary to realize the Founder's vision of evolving the Ummah with modern, global IT skills. His leadership is key to establishing As-Sa'adah Graduates as competitive players in the digital economy.

Molana Munir Ahmad Alvi

Director of Islamic & Outreach Programs

Molana Munir Ahmad Alvi is an Esteemed Islamic Scholar and a figure of international repute, renowned for his powerful oratory and unwavering commitment to global outreach. He is a devoted Muballigh (Preacher) and leads the Mission of Khatm-e-Nubuwwat (Finality of Prophethood), actively driving Dawah (preaching) initiatives.

A prolific author, Molana Alvi has contributed significantly to Islamic literature, having penned several influential books, with a notable specialization in Seerah (the prophetic biography). His extensive missionary work has seen him travel across the globe, particularly through the African continent and other regions, successfully propagating the faith.

As the Program Director for As-Saadah, Molana Alvi brings this deep scholarly and outreach experience to bear. His goal is to strategically equip Muslim youth with essential modern and digital skills, enabling them to effectively leverage technology and successfully advance the mission of preaching Islam digitally on a global scale.

Molana Abdul Quddoos Muhammadi

Patronage

Molana Abdul Quddoos Muhammadi is a celebrated Islamic Scholar and highly respected figure in Pakistan, holding the significant positions of Spokesperson and Director of Media for Wifaq ul Madaris al Arabia Pakistan. He is a national-level columnist and an international orator, regularly traveling to countries like Saudi Arabia, the Gulf States, and Europe to deliver scholarly addresses. Through the platform of Madaris Foundation Pakistan, his commitment to the welfare of both religious and modern educational students—specifically preparing them with soft and IT skills—serves as the driving force behind his dedicated Patronage for the unique mission of As-Saadah.

Dr. Syed Muhammad Usman Ghani

Boot Camp Manager / Administrator

Dr. Syed Muhammad Usman Ghani represents a perfect synthesis of both educational systems. He first graduated as an Aalim from Wifaq ul Madaris Al Arabia Pakistan. He then pursued higher education in Madinah al Munawwarah before earning a highly selective, fully funded scholarship to complete his Ph.D. with distinction at the renowned International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). Drawing on his extensive academic and religious background, Dr. Ghani now serves as the Administrator, ensuring the effective and successful implementation of As-Saadah's unique concept and programs.

Founder's Message:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Welcome to the future of the Ummah—a future we are building by digital bricks at As-Saadah.

The world stands at the precipice of a new era, one defined by rapid technological advancement and digital connectivity. We recognized a crucial imperative: our respected Madaris Graduates, the torchbearers of our spiritual heritage, must not only participate in this era but must lead it.

As-Saadah was founded on a singular, powerful vision: to bridge the historic wisdom of Islamic scholarship with the modern demands of the digital economy. We are passionately committed to evolving the Ummah by equipping our graduates with the most sought-after modern IT and soft skills. This is more than just education; it is a movement for holistic empowerment. Under the guidance of our esteemed Patronage and the leadership of our highly experienced Directors, we provide the skills necessary for economic independence—whether through Shariah-Compliant business ventures or securing a due share in the global IT and entrepreneurial market.

Crucially, our mission extends beyond employment. We are preparing a generation of digital scholars who can effectively leverage technology to advance the divine mission of Digital Dawah and Global Outreach. Our graduates will carry the message of Islam to every corner of the world, digitally and powerfully.

Join us as we fulfill this profound responsibility. Together, we will transform our traditional strengths into modern global leadership, ensuring that our youth are not just recipients of technology, but its creators and moral guides.

Your success is the success of the Ummah.